WHISKY KILLED WHITE

A Glass Worker Came to an Untimely End.

SOME MYSTERY ABOUT HIS DEATH

Generally Believed That He Was Run Down by a Train Near the Specialty—The Ghastly Find of Two Young Men Early Sunday Morning.

Whisky has claimed another victim, and George White, a glassworker not yet 21 years of age, lies cold and stark in death because he carried a bottle on Saturday night.

White lived with his mother near the West End chapel, and was employed at the Specialty as a gatherer. He was a good workman, and although not yet of legal age, was at times addicted to drink. Last Saturday he was drunk in the upper part of the city, and walked along Sixth street in such condition as to attract attention. Then he started for home, singing as he went down the Cleveland and Pittsburg track. When next seen he was dead.

James Farrish and Charley Knoblock, well known young potters of the city, were in Wellsville on Saturday night, and missing the last car walked home. They passed a freight going west at Walkers' and another below Jethro bound for the east. When near the glass works, they saw a dark object on the track in front, and were not long in discovering that it was a dead man. They immediately notified John Emerling, night watchman at the plant, and he telephoned to city hall. Officers Jennings and Earle were there, and they sent word to the fire station. Fireman Randolph and Special Officer Woods responded with the wagon, and the party were soon at the factory. Squire Manley was also summoned, and he viewed the remains before they were taken from the track.

White was found lying on his face with his hands stretched toward the east. His legs were crossed, and the body was warm. Several holes in his head, and the scalp torn from the back part of the skull convinced the officers that the man had been run down by a train. They could not, however, understand how a heavy freight train could pass over the man, and not mangle the body in a horrible manner. Careful search was made for evidences of a struggle, but none could be found. The body was carried to the wagon and taken to West's undertaking rooms, and the inquest held yesterday afternoon.

At the inquest John Garbey, also employed at the Specialty, testified that he had been with White on Saturday night. White, he said, had been drinking, and had a bottle when they were on Sixth street. White went to the lower part of the city and again returned to Sixth street. He entered at least one saloon, and in spite of the law against selling to minors, got a drink. Officer Jennings testified that he heard White and two other men quarrelling on Sixth street, and that the word "scab" was used. When White started for home it was after 1 o'clock, and as he reeled along he sang. He wanted to lay down and go to sleep, but his companions kept him moving. The only money he had was a copper cent, and he gave that away when he came up town. Doctor Clark and Doctor Hobbs made the examination. The theory advanced is that White lay on the track to sleep, and was run down by one of the freights which passed the men, who found him, at Walker's.

Squire Manley has not yet announced his verdict, nor will he have anything to say until after the doctors have reported. An autopsy was held yesterday, but the doctors have not yet announced the result. They would not talk on the subject when interviewed. There is a suspicion that White was murdered, and then placed on the track, as it seems impossible that a train could pass over the man and leave only the injuries found on White.

Mrs. White is heartbroken over the death of her son, and wept bitterly when the body was taken home this morning. The remains will be taken down the river tomorrow morning, and interred in a cemetery near Tiltonville.

GEORGE SMITH CHOSEN.

He Will Lead the Rechabites for Another Year.

The Rechabites are home from the state meeting at Wellston, and as usual, brought with them the bulk of the honors bestowed by the grand tent.

The sessions were among the most interesting and profitable ever held by the organization, and there was a large attendance. This city was represented by a party of 12, and they were so well entertained that they enjoyed every hour of their stay. George Smith, who filled the office of grand chief ruler last year, was given another term by a unanimous vote, all the other candidates withdrawing in his favor. This keeps the headquarters in this city where there is a large membership. S. C. Coleman was made visitor and lecturer for the primary branch, an important position. The other officers elected were as follows: Deputy chief ruler, John Stockdale, Zanesville; secretary-treasurer, George Vaughn, Zanesville. Of the six delegates sent to the national meeting this city got four, S. C. Coleman, P. F. McCloskey, Miss Sadie Coleman and Mrs. Kerr. The next meeting will be held in Zanesville, and it is possible that to carry out the spirit of the order the delegates will camp in tents. The Rechabites are constantly increasing in number, and the Wellston gathering was one of the largest in its history. The local delegates spent a day in Zanesville, and had a delightful time. They returned on Saturday night.

SPORTING NOTES.

Niles Won Again, This Time by a Good Margin.

The East Liverpool ball team were defeated at Niles, Saturday, by a score of 20 to 7. McShane went out of the box in the fourth inning with the score 7 to 5 in favor of Niles, the Niles team having six hits to their credit at that time, and Twaddle was substituted, but he was hit hard. Batteries—McShane, Twaddle, Finch and Baxter; Thomas and Williams. East Liverpool played good ball with the exception of J. Reark, who had a decidedly off day at short stop.

The Diamonds would like to play the West End Gymns or the Tombstones a series of three or five games. Ed Fitzgerald is their manager, and he is of the opinion that his team is second to none in the city.

Merced lost a game to Cincinnati, Saturday, through his own wildness and poor fielding, having 3 errors chalked up against him. The Cincinnati team secured nine hits from his delivery.

ARMED TO THE TEETH.

Spring Grove Residents Take No Risks These Days.

The people living at Spring Grove do not like to climb the path from the street car line after dark, but when it is necessary they go armed to the teeth. The other evening two young men started up the path, and one of them was telling what he would do if any one tried the holdup game on him. The other man was impressed with his bravery, but lost his good opinion of the brave man when they came under a lamp, as the fellow was leading the way with a revolver in his hand, ready to fire at the first occasion, and looked as though he would run if anybody yelled at him. The latest arrangement for lighting the path is to buy a few sticks of red fire and light them before starting up the hill. They will last until the road is reached, and present such a weird appearance in the woods that the highwaymen fear to attack.

THE SPEAKERS.

They Have Been Selected for the Laying of the Corner Stone.

The following ministers from other cities will be in attendance and deliver addresses at the laying of the corner stone of the new German Lutheran church next Sunday afternoon: Reverend Hoh, Wheeling; Reverend Smith, Baden, and Reverend Pansavant, Pittsburg. The services will be appropriate, and a general invitation is extended to all to be present. The choir will render selections in English and German.

IN THE BLACK HILLS.

Liverpool Boys Have Deserted Cripple Creek.

Will Dickey, who went with a party from this county to the Cripple Creek country in search of wealth, writes that he has left that place, and is now located in the Black Hills. The party have staked off a number of claims, and are now busily engaged in prospecting for silver, some rich finds having been made there recently. They have grown accustomed to the climate, and like the country.

One of the Favorites.

Harry Smith, delegate to the potters' convention from Peoria, left for his home Saturday, after spending a week in the city. Harry is a general favorite with the potters, and has been dubbed the convention orator. The remainder of the delegates returned to their respective homes the same day.

Almost too Much for Mrs. Kirchner. The journey to Lisbon, Saturday, greatly fatigued Mrs. John Kirchner, who went to that place contrary to the advice of her physician. The lady, however, is some better today and is recovering.

HECKATHORN IN JAIL

He Was Captured by the Police This Morning.

TAKEN IN AN AVONDALE HOUSE

The Officers Had Information That he Was There, and Surrounded the House—He Walked Into the Arms of Officer Meador. Other Arrests.

George Heckathorn, Jr., the young man who has been wanted by the police for several weeks, was arrested this morning and locked up.

The police received information that Heckathorn was at the house of a woman named Thompson in the hollow between Avondale street and the Calcutta road. Officers Whan, Randolph, McMillen, Terrence and Meador lost no time in going to the place, and surrounding the house. Officer Whan knocked at the door, but receiving no immediate reply was quietly waiting when Officer Meador came around the house with Heckathorn. The man had walked out of the back door, and into the officer's arms. He made no resistance, but Terrence handcuffed him, and he was taken to jail. The charge against him is highway robbery, and he will soon be given a hearing. Orin, who is in jail under the suspicion of being implicated in the same affair, will likely be heard tomorrow. The police have little to say on the subject, and it is thought that other arrests will soon be made. Officers Whan and Meador have been after Heckathorn since the day of the holdup. There are others, and the officers are now hunting them. Their identity is known.

Chief Johnson arrested John Allison on Saturday evening, and placed him behind the bars. Allison is noted for his horse trading proclivities, and was taken in custody and will be held until he pays an old fine marked against his name. He was put to work with the street force, but one day tiring of the job he skipped out. Since then the police have been looking for him.

John Maloney, who was arrested for drunkenness, Saturday, was arraigned this morning and fined $7. He was without money, and pleaded with the mayor to let him return to his home in Salineville, as he feared he would lose his position. His honor said he would think the matter over.

PUT THEM OFF.

Only Railroad Men Were Allowed at the Picnic.

Two well known club men and a rising young attorney who attempted to attend the railroad picnic, Saturday, without an invitation, met with an experience they will probably not care to repeat. The clubmen were put off the first section at Wellsville, one protesting that his father owned stock in the road, while the other claimed to be a member of the section gang. The rising attorney fared better, and not until the train reached Kensington was he compelled to leave, although he claimed to be a car builder. All three young men were then furnished tickets for the regular train and went to Brady's lake. Upon their arrival at the picnic grounds they found that their troubles were not finished, for as soon as one of them started to dance he was told that the picnic was for railroad employees only. The employees finally took pity on the boys, and told them they could dance if they paid. In the evening a permit was secured, and the young men came home on the excursion train, but it is safe to say they will not try to attend any picnics without an invitation in the future.

A COMBINATION CAR.

The Street Railway Men Will Soon Have an Improvement.

Two old street cars were shipped to Cleveland last week. One of them will be remodeled into a combination express and passenger car, and reshipped to the city for use on the line here. It is expected that the car will arrive in a month and will be placed on the line at once, being used on a day run only. The car is something that has long been needed, and since the order of no smoking is in effect, the tobacco using people will, to a great extent, take the car. They will be permitted to use the express room for smoking purposes.

PARALYSIS OF THE BRAIN

Caused the Death of James Leigh, an Aged Resident.

James Leigh died at his home on Fourth street, Saturday evening at 11:10 o'clock, of paralysis of the brain. Deceased was aged 68 years, and has been suffering for a year but until last Thursday he was able to be around. Mr. Leigh was one of the oldest residents of the city, coming to this country on the Enterprise in 1849, and locating here a few weeks later. He was married in 1851 by Squire Verner to Miss Ann Allen, that lady having come over on the Lady Franklin in 1850. His wife and three children, James, William and Mrs. W. A. Rhoades, are left to mourn his loss. He was one of the oldest members of the Odd Fellows and Grand Army, and the organizations had charge of the funeral. The funeral took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock, Reverend Sloane officiating. Remains were laid to rest at Riverview cemetery.

A RECEIVER.

One is Asked for the Street Railway.

Lisbon, July 13.—[Special.]—It became known this afternoon that Deputy Supplee went to East Liverpool last Friday, and levied upon the cars, corporate rights, franchises, incomes, real estate and profits of the East Liverpool and Wellsville Street railway. The action asks that a receiver be appointed to whom the railway company shall be required to deliver up the property and credits in order that he may sell the line. The company and the Savings and Trust company, of Cleveland, are enjoined from selling the property. The levy will not tie up the road. The action was filed in connection with the Hannahan suit by Judge Wells and A. G. Smith.

MAKING READY.

Camp Grounds Being Prepared for the Soldier Boys.

Members of Company E are preparing for camp, and every available bit of information concerning the ground is eagerly sought by the boys. Board floors for 500 tents are being placed in position, and 31 cook houses are being built. The local company will be in camp from July 27 until August 3. The Second regiment and the cavalry will occupy the camp before the Eighth takes possession.

Wants it Cleaned.

A prominent resident of Sixth street in speaking to a reporter, said: "I wish you would call the sanitary policeman's attention to the alley between Sixth and Seventh streets. It is in a horrible condition, and dead rats and rubbish are scattered along the alley. The stench that arises therefrom is almost unbearable."

Fun With a Barber.

This morning three young men were loafing on the steps of an uptown barber shop when the proprietor appeared, and ordered them away in a very ugly manner. The boys talked back, and the barber covered the steps with molasses, mud and water.

Will Leave Wednesday.

The Eclipse team will leave Wednesday morning for Marietta, where they will play three games of ball. They go from there to Parkersburg for three games, and then to Sistersville for three.

Died at a Hospital.

Mrs. Mary Gratton, who was sent to the hospital in Cleveland some time ago, died at that institution Saturday evening. The remains were taken to Gratton, W. Va., for interment.

A Big Fish.

The New Era Fishing club, in camp at Williamsport, have caught many fish the past few days. Robert Dorsey carried off the prize with one which weighed eight pounds.

Two Boys.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Will Green, Avondale street—a son.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mulligan, California Hollow—a son.

Will Leave for England.

James Balmer, night watchman at Brunt's, will leave for New York this evening, and will sail for England, Saturday.

Going to a Picnic.

A number of the colored population of this city and Wellsville will attend a picnic of Brown's chapel, Allegheny, at Rock Point, Thursday.

Sued for Money.

Swartz, Manback & Co. this morning sued John Robinson for $161.71, claimed due on a note. The case will be heard tomorrow.

Matters of Interest.

Trades council will hold an important session Wednesday night, and discuss and act upon several matters of interest.

Will Hold a Picnic.

The north side Presbyterian chapel will hold a picnic at Riverside park, Thursday.

Board of Improvement.

The board of improvement will meet this afternoon at city hall, and transact business.

THIEVES STILL AT IT

An Attempt in the Lower Part of the City.

KINNEY'S REVOLVER MISSED FIRE

Otherwise a Robber Would Have Been Captured—A Camp on Beaver Creek Was Raided Saturday Morning—Shot Guns and Provisions Were Stolen.

Thieves attempted to enter the residence of Mrs. Kinney, corner of Union street and Center alley, early Sunday morning.

About 1 o'clock, as the family were sleeping peacefully, Ben Kinney, who occupies a room near the porch, heard someone coming up over the roof of the porch. He called to them, but receiving no answer arose, picked up his revolver, and went downstairs. Going to the door of the dining room he opened it, and discovered another man on the edge of the porch. Pointing the revolver directly at the fellow, Kinney pulled the trigger, but his weapon missed fire. He closed the door hastily, and the man on the porch jumped to the ground and the two men hurried into the alley. Kinney ran to the front door, arriving in time to see one of the fellows go up the street and the other down. Had his revolver not missed fire it is probable that one of the gang who have become so bold, would have been taken.

Some of the robbers have evidently changed their scene of operations to the surrounding country, and have taken to robbing camps. Word reached the city last night that a raid had been made on a party of men encamped on Beaver creek at an early hour Saturday morning. The place was thoroughly ransacked while the campers slept, and James Swingewood and a lad named Chadwick each lost a valuable shotgun. A quantity of provisions and a few other articles of value were also taken. It is not known who did the deed.

An attempt was made to enter the house of a man named Logan one night last week. Logan lives in McKinnon addition. It is said that several other houses were visited the same night, but the thieves did not succeed in forcing an entrance.

Edward McKinnon, of East End, has returned from his trip down the river in search of the boat stolen from his father. He could find no trace of the robbers, and nothing was heard of the boat.

Late Saturday night two young men came to Constable Bertelle and said that an attempt had been made to hold them up. They were out of breath and their appearance did not belie their statement. One of the lads is named Deitz, and is an employee of the glass works. He and his companion were walking down the road from the lower house, and as they reached Harker's pottery, two persons sprang out and commanded them to stop. Instead of complying, Deitz and his friend took to their heels and made good their escape. When they reached Tony's place of business they were almost exhausted.

PUT THEM OFF.

Only Railroad Men Were Allowed at the Picnic.

Two well known club men and a rising young attorney who attempted to attend the railroad picnic, Saturday, without an invitation, met with an experience they will probably not care to repeat. The clubmen were put off the first section at Wellsville, one protesting that his father owned stock in the road, while the other claimed to be a member of the section gang. The rising attorney fared better, and not until the train reached Kensington was he compelled to leave, although he claimed to be a car builder. All three young men were then furnished tickets for the regular train and went to Brady's lake. Upon their arrival at the picnic grounds they found that their troubles were not finished, for as soon as one of them started to dance he was told that the picnic was for railroad employees only. The employees finally took pity on the boys, and told them they could dance if they paid. In the evening a permit was secured, and the young men came home on the excursion train, but it is safe to say they will not try to attend any picnics without an invitation in the future.

A COMBINATION CAR.

The Street Railway Men Will Soon Have an Improvement.

Two old street cars were shipped to Cleveland last week. One of them will be remodeled into a combination express and passenger car, and reshipped to the city for use on the line here. It is expected that the car will arrive in a month and will be placed on the line at once, being used on a day run only. The car is something that has long been needed, and since the order of no smoking is in effect, the tobacco using people will, to a great extent, take the car. They will be permitted to use the express room for smoking purposes.

PARALYSIS OF THE BRAIN

Caused the Death of James Leigh, an Aged Resident.

James Leigh died at his home on Fourth street, Saturday evening at 11:10 o'clock, of paralysis of the brain. Deceased was aged 68 years, and has been suffering for a year but until last Thursday he was able to be around. Mr. Leigh was one of the oldest residents of the city, coming to this country on the Enterprise in 1849, and locating here a few weeks later. He was married in 1851 by Squire Verner to Miss Ann Allen, that lady having come over on the Lady Franklin in 1850. His wife and three children, James, William and Mrs. W. A. Rhoades, are left to mourn his loss. He was one of the oldest members of the Odd Fellows and Grand Army, and the organizations had charge of the funeral. The funeral took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock, Reverend Sloane officiating. Remains were laid to rest at Riverview cemetery.

A RECEIVER.

One is Asked for the Street Railway.

Lisbon, July 13.—[Special.]—It became known this afternoon that Deputy Supplee went to East Liverpool last Friday, and levied upon the cars, corporate rights, franchises, incomes, real estate and profits of the East Liverpool and Wellsville Street railway. The action asks that a receiver be appointed to whom the railway company shall be required to deliver up the property and credits in order that he may sell the line. The company and the Savings and Trust company, of Cleveland, are enjoined from selling the property. The levy will not tie up the road. The action was filed in connection with the Hannahan suit by Judge Wells and A. G. Smith.

MAKING READY.

Camp Grounds Being Prepared for the Soldier Boys.

Members of Company E are preparing for camp, and every available bit of information concerning the ground is eagerly sought by the boys. Board floors for 500 tents are being placed in position, and 31 cook houses are being built. The local company will be in camp from July 27 until August 3. The Second regiment and the cavalry will occupy the camp before the Eighth takes possession.

Wants it Cleaned.

A prominent resident of Sixth street in speaking to a reporter, said: "I wish you would call the sanitary policeman's attention to the alley between Sixth and Seventh streets. It is in a horrible condition, and dead rats and rubbish are scattered along the alley. The stench that arises therefrom is almost unbearable."

Fun With a Barber.

This morning three young men were loafing on the steps of an uptown barber shop when the proprietor appeared, and ordered them away in a very ugly manner. The boys talked back, and the barber covered the steps with molasses, mud and water.

Will Leave Wednesday.

The Eclipse team will leave Wednesday morning for Marietta, where they will play three games of ball. They go from there to Parkersburg for three games, and then to Sistersville for three.

Died at a Hospital.

Mrs. Mary Gratton, who was sent to the hospital in Cleveland some time ago, died at that institution Saturday evening. The remains were taken to Gratton, W. Va., for interment.

A Big Fish.

The New Era Fishing club, in camp at Williamsport, have caught many fish the past few days. Robert Dorsey carried off the prize with one which weighed eight pounds.

Matters of Interest.

Trades council will hold an important session Wednesday night, and discuss and act upon several matters of interest.

Will Hold a Picnic.

The north side Presbyterian chapel will hold a picnic at Riverside park, Thursday.

Board of Improvement.

The board of improvement will meet this afternoon at city hall, and transact business.

THIEVES STILL AT IT

An Attempt in the Lower Part of the City.

KINNEY'S REVOLVER MISSED FIRE

Otherwise a Robber Would Have Been Captured—A Camp on Beaver Creek Was Raided Saturday Morning—Shot Guns and Provisions Were Stolen.

Thieves attempted to enter the residence of Mrs. Kinney, corner of Union street and Center alley, early Sunday morning.

About 1 o'clock, as the family were sleeping peacefully, Ben Kinney, who occupies a room near the porch, heard someone coming up over the roof of the porch. He called to them, but receiving no answer arose, picked up his revolver, and went downstairs. Going to the door of the dining room he opened it, and discovered another man on the edge of the porch. Pointing the revolver directly at the fellow, Kinney pulled the trigger, but his weapon missed fire. He closed the door hastily, and the man on the porch jumped to the ground and the two men hurried into the alley. Kinney ran to the front door, arriving in time to see one of the fellows go up the street and the other down. Had his revolver not missed fire it is probable that one of the gang who have become so bold, would have been taken.

Some of the robbers have evidently changed their scene of operations to the surrounding country, and have taken to robbing camps. Word reached the city last night that a raid had been made on a party of men encamped on Beaver creek at an early hour Saturday morning. The place was thoroughly ransacked while the campers slept, and James Swingewood and a lad named Chadwick each lost a valuable shotgun. A quantity of provisions and a few other articles of value were also taken. It is not known who did the deed.

An attempt was made to enter the house of a man named Logan one night last week. Logan lives in McKinnon addition. It is said that several other houses were visited the same night, but the thieves did not succeed in forcing an entrance.

Edward McKinnon, of East End, has returned from his trip down the river in search of the boat stolen from his father. He could find no trace of the robbers, and nothing was heard of the boat.

Late Saturday night two young men came to Constable Bertele and said that an attempt had been made to hold them up. They were out of breath and their appearance did not belie their statement. One of the lads is named Deitz, and is an employee of the glass works. He and his companion were walking down the road from the power house, and as they reached Harker's pottery, two persons sprang out and commanded them to stop. Instead of complying, Deitz and his friend took to their heels and made good their escape. When they reached Tony's place of business they were almost exhausted.

Ohio was slighted at the Chicago convention, but the Democrats need lose no sleep on that account. It will change the vote only a very little.

The people who believe they will be given 16 silver dollars for every dollar in gold they send to the treasury, will all vote the Democratic ticket this year.

The Populist convention will be held in St. Louis next week, and the people of that place are wondering what they have done to suffer such another tornado of wind.

MISCONSTRUED.

When the News Review recently criticised the police force it did not condemn the officers individually or collectively. It simply called attention to the numerous robberies of the past few weeks, and expressed the belief that the police would bring the guilty ones to justice, commending them for what they had done in the past and expressing faith in their abilities for the future. Roundsmen have pretended to believe that they were unjustly criticised. If that be so let them look well to their reputations, and lose no time in running down the organized gang who have been robbing right and left for several weeks, and who have broken the law on every possible occasion. When this has been done the city will know it has a force upon which it can depend.

IT IS EXPENSIVE.

W. B. Allen, connected prominently with the Mercer Pottery company, of Trenton, is of a mathematical turn, and has recently been engaged in calculating the amount lost to operative potters by reason of the present Democratic administration. He finds that the potters are out in round numbers just $1,500,000 in the last three years, the money paid out in that time being compared with the amount they received during the preceding three years. For this loss the Democratic party is directly responsible. It hoodwinked the workman by false representation, and when once in power proceeded to deprive him of employment. He was brought into close competition with the poorly paid potters of Europe, and suffered in consequence. But little more than a year had passed until the American potter was compelled to undergo a reduction in wages to meet this competition, and when work was to be found he has since been subject to it. Some have suffered, and others have been seriously inconvenienced, and all can lay their troubles at the door of Democracy. We doubt whether $1,500,000 would cover the loss sustained by the working potters of East Liverpool because of that Democratic victory almost four years ago.

WINONA LAKE EXCURSIONS.

Special Rates via Pennsylvania Lines for Winona Assembly.

Season excursion tickets to Winona Lake (formerly Eagle Lake, Ind.) will be sold via Pennsylvania lines on and after June 21. The return limit will include Oct. 31, allowing a season's sojourn at this delightful resort. Special low rate tickets, good returning 15 days from date of sale, will also be sold during the months of June, July and August.

Winona Lake is the site of Winona assembly, which affords notable opportunities for recreation, instruction, entertainment and devotion. The assembly grounds, comprising over 200 acres, surround the lake, a beautiful sheet of clear water near Warsaw, Ind., on the Fort Wayne route. Many pretty cottages have been erected on the grounds, which are nicely shaded. The improvements include a fine park, bicycle track and ball ground, with a large amphitheater; an auditorium seating over 3,000 persons; college halls, hotel, restaurants and supply stores. Rates for entertainment at the hotel and boarding houses will be found very reasonable. The fishing is fine, and the large fleet of row boats and steamers afford facilities for delightful boating. The summer school will be in session from July 20 to August 14, in charge of Dr. John M. Coulter. In August a Bible conference will be held under the direction of Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman. Well known educators and lecturers will take part in the educational work. Time may be pleasantly and profitably passed at this pleasant resort, and body and mind invigorated by health-giving recreation and instructive entertainment.

For rates and information about train facilities apply to ticket agents of the Pennsylvania lines, or address F. Van Dusen, chief assistant general passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa. For information concerning the assembly address Rev. R. V. Hunter, Eagle Lake, P. O., Ind.

TO HIS BIRTHPLACE.

Candidate Bryan Left for Salem,
Ill., Today.

VISITED TRUMBULL'S GRAVE.

Any Distinction He Has, He Says, He
Owes to the Dead Man—Spent Sunday at the Old Trumbull Mansion—His Future Program.

CHICAGO, July 13.—William Jennings Bryan, the nominee of the Democratic party for president, left this afternoon, accompanied by his wife, for Salem, Ill., his birthplace. Mr. Bryan's original intention was to remain in Salem a week and take the rest he so much needed, but he said:

"I find that I will only have a day or two to spend at Salem, although I would like to stay much longer. From Salem I will turn direct to Lincoln, Neb. From there I will go to Omaha and then to New York to receive the notification committee. I do not think the 21st will be the date fixed for my meeting the committee in New York. Probably a week or so later will be the time fixed on."

This morning Mr. Bryan attended the meeting of the notification committee at the Palmer House at 9 o'clock.

The nominee of the Democratic party for president of the United States turned his back Sunday afternoon upon stationery and eager curiosity seekers and went out to quiet Oakwood cemetery and stood with uncovered head before the grave of Lyman Trumbull, the man who had been his teacher and friend. When Mr. Bryan turned away his eyes were brimming with tears.

"Any distinction I may have I owe to him," he said, "and I am proud to visit his grave."

San Francisco hackmen won their strike at $1.50 a day, but when their leaders were not reinstated the strike was renewed.

Detroit carpenters called off their eight-hour strike and will strengthen their organization. Bosses agreed to grant eight hours Jan. 1, 1897, also an increase of wages from 20 to 25 cents an hour.

The wages of the members of the Iron Molders' union of North America will remain the same as they are at present. The settlement of the scale was due to the conference between officials of the union and officials of the Stove Manufacturers' National Defense association.

A tenant's league has been formed in Washington, D. C., with the special object of withholding patronage from all dealers, agents and landlords who employ underpaid labor.

The National Brotherhood of Boiler-makers and Shipbuilders has wiped out the color line and will join the American Federation of Labor.

President James O'Connell of the Machinists' International union has gone to Cleveland to take charge of the big strike, which involves about 600 members of the trade.

The decree of the Italian government indefinitely extending the time of the copyright of Rossini's "Barber of Seville" has been declared by a parliamentary commission as contrary to law and void. The final decision rests with the full house of parliament.

According to a Montevideo paper the tenor Tannino has purchased an estate in Argentina, and intends to devote himself to agriculture in that republic.

Signor Crispien has asked the Italian council of state for a pension on his retirement from political life on account of his advanced age and because of his long service to the country.

A venerable Wilson county, Kan., veteran, who had not only served all through the war but still staggers along under the burden of the name of Legrand Ferdinand Hortus Scortus Marlin, is restricted to a pension of $6 a month.

Daniel Shedd, son of Daniel Shedd, who served in the army and navy in the Revolutionary War, and was one of the guards at the execution of Major Andre, is living at Brewer, Me. Captain Shedd is 92 years old.

Princess Maud and Prince Charles to marry in England.

LONDON, July 13.—Princess Maud of Wales, granddaughter of Queen Victoria, will be married Wednesday to Prince Charles of Denmark.

It has been decided that there will be three processions from the state apartments to the private chapel—the members of the royal family and the royal guests, the bridegroom and his supporters, and the bride and bridesmaids. The queen will be wheeled to the entrance of the chapel, which she will enter alone just before the bride. The queen's state trumpeters, outside the chapel, will herald the arrival of each procession with a fanfare.

Princess Maud has already received five bicycles as wedding presents. Regarding the marriage settlement it appears that Princess Maud will have £4,000 ($20,000) out of the allowance granted by parliament to the Prince of porch and looked across the blue waters of the lake. Some of the neighbors called and chatted with Mr. Bryan and Senator Jones, and the vice presidential nominee, Mr. Sewall, drove out and paid a short visit.

After they returned, Mr. John Trumbull took Mr. Bryan in his carriage out to Oakwood cemetery, where a visit was paid to the grave of Lyman Trumbull. In the evening Mrs. Bryan and his wife and the members of the Trumbull family sat in the library chatting.

BRYAN'S NEIGHBORS HAPPY.

He Will Be Given a Magnificent Welcome Home.

LINCOLN, Neb., July 13.—A magnificent reception will be tendered Hon. William J. Bryan in Lincoln on his return home. It will be no partisan affair. A feature regarded here as significant is the vast quantity of telegrams being received from Populists over the state asking permission to participate in a Bryan ratification. They appear to regard his endorsement by the Nebraska Populist convention and the St. Louis convention as a foregone conclusion.

The announcement that Illinois had given its vote to Bryan was immediately followed by the long-expected bulletin that a nomination had been made. All the flags and bunting in the various stores were purchased, and never before has the city of Lincoln been so gaily decorated. Cannons were fired at regular intervals from the government square on university grounds, and processions and carriages passed along the streets with placards bearing the huge figures of 16 to 1.

HARRITY REFUSED RE-ELECTION.

A Vigorous Silver Campaign to Be Made In the East.

CHICAGO, July 13.—The national committee wanted to re-elect Harrity national chairman, but he declined, saying he wanted to rest. Senator Jones of Arkansas has been made chairman.

Mr. Bryan made the suggestion that exercises attending the notification of candidates could be held with advantage in Madison Square garden, New York, in about three weeks. This was the place where the exercises were held four years ago, when the committee notified Mr. Cleveland of his nomination and heard his address of acceptance. This will likely be done.

It was decided to carry the fight for free silver into the east, and Candidate Bryan will likely soon speak in New York.

Headquarters will likely be in Chicago.

Killed Number 28; 51 Injured.

OMAHA, July 13.—Omaha is a city of mourning over the collision on the Chicago and Northwestern. A full realization shows it was the greatest catastrophe that ever wreaked death and desolation in the hearts and firesides of the city's people. No part of the city was spared. There are broken bones and bleeding hearts everywhere. Never did a day of pleasure end with more awful disaster. Twenty-eight people were killed and 51 injured, many of whom will die. Twenty-four of the dead are identified, and the others are so badly mutilated that identification is hardly possible.

It was a head-end collision and occurred between Logan and Missouri Valley. The best estimates indicate that 27 are dead and 51 injured, many of whom will die. The wreck occurred as a result of Engineer Montgomery of the excursion train, mistaking orders. He was ordered to wait at Logan until the fast mail and eastbound passenger train had passed.

He waited for the passenger and then started out, having forgotten about the mail. The trains were going 50 miles an hour when they met three miles west of Logan. Engineer Montgomery jumped and escaped with a broken arm. The two engines crashed together and in an instant freight and passenger coaches were piled one upon the top of another. Word was at once sent to this city, and in a short time a special train with doctors and officers of the road on board was sent out from Council Bluffs. The dead and dying were piled along the tracks in the switchyards at Logan like cordwood. There were a few doctors on the ground, but not enough to give attention to one-third of the sufferers. Among the dead and dying relatives were hunting for their friends and those who were dear to them.

The roll of dead belonging to Omaha numbers 18 names, the complete list being as follows:

John McDermott, Sixteenth and Nicholas streets, machinist at the Union Pacific shops.

John Kinsey, 4603 Cumming street.

Robert Claire, 1619 North Eighteenth street, son of John Claire, ex-assistant boiler inspector.

John H. Jack, Sixteenth and Webster, newsboy, employed by the Omaha News company.

John Larson, aged about 16.

Fred Nelson.

John B. Kilker.

Owen Cavanaugh, 18 years.

Hugh Dodson, 12 years.

Mrs. Kate Bradley and baby.

Mrs. P. J. Carroll and boy, aged 6.

Patrick Scully.

Miss Mary Tracy.

John Cosgrove, aged 10.

William Cosgrove, aged 14.

Margaret Cosgrove, aged 24.

In addition to these residents of other towns were killed, increasing the list to 25, but there are still three or four not accounted for, two of the doctors who went to the scene from Omaha stating that they counted the dead bodies, one placing the number at 28 and the other at 29. The list so far as has been obtained is as follows:

Charles Heiman, Missouri Valley.

Walter Jennings, Missouri Valley.

George Winger, Morrison, Ill.

Lawrence Peters, Council Bluffs.

Miss Ollie Wilson, Council Bluffs.

Mrs. Taylor and baby, Council Bluffs.

Of the more seriously injured, some will die, some will hold their beds for weeks and months and some are but slightly injured. The wounds range from surface cuts to internal injuries, which must result in death.

ROYAL WEDDING WEDNESDAY.

Princess Maud and Prince Charles to marry in England.

LONDON, July 13.—Princess Maud of Wales, granddaughter of Queen Victoria, will be married Wednesday to Prince Charles of Denmark.

It has been decided that there will be three processions from the state apartments to the private chapel—the members of the royal family and the royal guests, the bridegroom and his supporters, and the bride and bridesmaids. The queen will be wheeled to the entrance of the chapel, which she will enter alone just before the bride. The queen's state trumpeters, outside the chapel, will herald the arrival of each procession with a fanfare.

Princess Maud has already received five bicycles as wedding presents. Regarding the marriage settlement it appears that Princess Maud will have £4,000 ($20,000) out of the allowance granted by parliament to the Prince of Wales in 1889, and the crown princess of Denmark makes an allowance of £10,000 ($50,000) to Prince Charles. The couple will occupy a suite of rooms in the palace of the King of Greece at Copenhagen, and they will also occupy a villa near Bernstorff castle as their country residence in Denmark, while a small mansion at Appleton, near Sandringham, will be the English home of the couple. Thus they will have £14,000 to £16,000 a year, and no rent to pay.

Cholera Raging In Egypt.

CAIRO, July 13.—For the whole of Egypt on Saturday there were reported 362 new cases of cholera and 321 deaths, several of the deaths being in the Egyptian army at Wady Halfa. Major Roddy Owen, the famous Uganda explorer, has died of cholera at Ambigol.

Crushed to Death.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., July 13.—The mill of Sharp & Co., in Lincoln county, collapsed. Tom Pullen and Thomas Sharp were fatally injured. James Skeens, Fred Alberts and a son of Sharp were dangerously wounded.

Mother and Child Will Die.

READING, Pa., July 13.—Mrs. Lewis Fair and her child were run down on the tracks of the Wilmington and Northern railroad, near White Bear station, and were so badly injured that they will die.

Didn't Hit Rhodes.

CAPTOWN, July 13.—During the recent action between the colonial forces and the Matabele insurgents at Thabas, an Imbamba native fired point blank at Cecil Rhodes, but missed him.

OMAHA IN MOURNING.

The Deadly Collision Cast
Gloom Over the City.

KILLED NUMBER 28; 51 INJURED.

Carelessness of an Engineer in Forgetting His Orders Caused the Fearful Accident—The Victims Were Excursionists—Details of the Affair.

OMAHA, July 13.—Omaha is a city of mourning over the collision on the Chicago and Northwestern. A full realization shows it was the greatest catastrophe that ever wreaked death and desolation in the hearts and firesides of the city's people. No part of the city was spared. There are broken bones and bleeding hearts everywhere. Never did a day of pleasure end with more awful disaster. Twenty-eight people were killed and 51 injured, many of whom will die. Twenty-four of the dead are identified, and the others are so badly mutilated that identification is hardly possible.

It was a head-end collision and occurred between Logan and Missouri Valley. The best estimates indicate that 27 are dead and 51 injured, many of whom will die. The wreck occurred as a result of Engineer Montgomery of the excursion train, mistaking orders. He was ordered to wait at Logan until the fast mail and eastbound passenger train had passed.

He waited for the passenger and then started out, having forgotten about the mail. The trains were going 50 miles an hour when they met three miles west of Logan. Engineer Montgomery jumped and escaped with a broken arm. The two engines crashed together and in an instant freight and passenger coaches were piled one upon the top of another. Word was at once sent to this city, and in a short time a special train with doctors and officers of the road on board was sent out from Council Bluffs. The dead and dying were piled along the tracks in the switchyards at Logan like cordwood. There were a few doctors on the ground, but not enough to give attention to one-third of the sufferers. Among the dead and dying relatives were hunting for their friends and those who were dear to them.

The roll of dead belonging to Omaha numbers 18 names, the complete list being as follows:

John McDermott, Sixteenth and Nicholas streets, machinist at the Union Pacific shops.

John Kinsey, 4603 Cumming street.

Robert Claire, 1619 North Eighteenth street, son of John Claire, ex-assistant boiler inspector.

John H. Jack, Sixteenth and Webster, newsboy, employed by the Omaha News company.

John Larson, aged about 16.

Fred Nelson.

John B. Kilker.

Owen Cavanaugh, 18 years.

Hugh Dodson, 12 years.

Mrs. Kate Bradley and baby.

Mrs. P. J. Carroll and boy, aged 6.

Patrick Scully.

Miss Mary Tracy.

John Cosgrove, aged 10.

William Cosgrove, aged 14.

Margaret Cosgrove, aged 24.

In addition to these residents of other towns were killed, increasing the list to 25, but there are still three or four not accounted for, two of the doctors who went to the scene from Omaha stating that they counted the dead bodies, one placing the number at 28 and the other at 29. The list so far as has been obtained is as follows:

Charles Heiman, Missouri Valley.

Walter Jennings, Missouri Valley.

George Winger, Morrison, Ill.

Lawrence Peters, Council Bluffs.

Miss Ollie Wilson, Council Bluffs.

Mrs. Taylor and baby, Council Bluffs.

Of the more seriously injured, some will die, some will hold their beds for weeks and months and some are but slightly injured. The wounds range from surface cuts to internal injuries, which must result in death.

ROYAL WEDDING WEDNESDAY.

Princess Maud and Prince Charles to marry in England.

LONDON, July 13.—Princess Maud of Wales, granddaughter of Queen Victoria, will be married Wednesday to Prince Charles of Denmark.

It has been decided that there will be three processions from the state apartments to the private chapel—the members of the royal family and the royal guests, the bridegroom and his supporters, and the bride and bridesmaids. The queen will be wheeled to the entrance of the chapel, which she will enter alone just before the bride. The queen's state trumpeters, outside the chapel, will herald the arrival of each procession with a fanfare.

Princess Maud has already received five bicycles as wedding presents. Regarding the marriage settlement it appears that Princess Maud will have £4,000 ($20,000) out of the allowance granted by parliament to the Prince of Wales in 1889, and the crown princess of Denmark makes an allowance of £10,000 ($50,000) to Prince Charles. The couple will occupy a suite of rooms in the palace of the King of Greece at Copenhagen, and they will also occupy a villa near Bernstorff castle as their country residence in Denmark, while a small mansion at Appleton, near Sandringham, will be the English home of the couple. Thus they will have £14,000 to £16,000 a year, and no rent to pay.

Cholera Raging In Egypt.

CAIRO, July 13.—For the whole of Egypt on Saturday there were reported 362 new cases of cholera and 321 deaths, several of the deaths being in the Egyptian army at Wady Halfa. Major Roddy Owen, the famous Uganda explorer, has died of cholera at Ambigol.

Crushed to Death.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., July 13.—The mill of Sharp & Co., in Lincoln county, collapsed. Tom Pullen and Thomas Sharp were fatally injured. James Skeens, Fred Alberts and a son of Sharp were dangerously wounded.

Mother and Child Will Die.

READING, Pa., July 13.—Mrs. Lewis Fair and her child were run down on the tracks of the Wilmington and Northern railroad, near White Bear station, and were so badly injured that they will die.

OHIO was slighted at the Chicago convention, but the Democrats need lose no sleep on that account. It will change the vote only a very little.

The people who believe they will be given 16 silver dollars for every dollar in gold they send to the treasury, will all vote the Democratic ticket this year.

The Populist convention will be held in St. Louis next week, and the people of that place are wondering what they have done to suffer such another tornado of wind.

MISCONSTRUED.

When the NEWS REVIEW recently criticised the police force it did not condemn the officers individually or collectively. It simply called attention to the numerous robberies of the past few weeks, and expressed the belief that the police would bring the guilty ones to justice, commending them for what they had done in the past and expressing faith in their abilities for the future. Roundsmen have pretended to believe that they were unjustly criticised. If that be so let them look well to their reputations, and lose no time in running down the organized gang who have been robbing right and left for several weeks, and who have broken the law on every possible occasion. When this has been done the city will know it has a force upon which it can depend.

IT IS EXPENSIVE.

W. B. Allen, connected prominently with the Mercer Pottery company, of Trenton, is of a mathematical turn, and has recently been engaged in calculating the amount lost to operative potters by reason of the present Democratic administration. He finds that the potters are out in round numbers just $1,500,000 in the last three years, the money paid out in that time being compared with the amount they received during the preceding three years. For this loss the Democratic party is directly responsible. It hoodwinked the workingman by false representation, and when once in power proceeded to deprive him of employment. He was brought into close competition with the poorly paid potters of Europe, and suffered in consequence. But little more than a year had passed until the American potter was compelled to undergo a reduction in wages to meet this competition, and when work was to be found he has since been subject to it. Some have suffered, and others have been seriously inconvenienced, and all can lay their troubles at the door of Democracy. We doubt whether $1,500,000 would cover the loss sustained by the working potters of East Liverpool because of that Democratic victory about four years ago.

WINONA LAKE EXCURSIONS.

Special Rates via Pennsylvania Lines for
Winona Assembly.

Season excursion tickets to Winona Lake (formerly Eagle Lake, Ind.) will be sold via Pennsylvania lines on and after June 21. The return limit will include Oct. 31, allowing a season's sojourn at this delightful resort. Special low rate tickets, good returning 15 days from date of sale, will also be sold during the months of June, July and August.

Winona Lake is the site of Winona assembly, which affords notable opportunities for recreation, instruction, entertainment and devotion. The assembly grounds, comprising over 200 acres, surround the lake, a beautiful sheet of clear water near Warsaw, Ind., on the Fort Wayne route. Many pretty cottages have been erected on the grounds, which are nicely shaded. The improvements include a fine park, bicycle track and ball ground, with a large amphitheater; an auditorium seating over 3,000 persons; college halls, hotel, restaurants and supply stores. Rates for entertainment at the hotel and boarding houses will be found very reasonable. The fishing is fine, and the large fleet of row boats and steamers afford facilities for delightful boating. The summer school will be in session from July 20 to August 14, in charge of Dr. John M. Coulter. In August a Bible conference will be held under the direction of Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman. Well known educators and lecturers will take part in the educational work. Time may be pleasantly and profitably passed at this pleasant resort, and body and mind invigorated by health-giving recreation and instructive entertainment.

For rates and information about train facilities apply to ticket agents of the Pennsylvania lines, or address F. Van Dusen, chief assistant general passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa. For information concerning the assembly address Rev. R. V. Hunter, Eagle Lake, P. O., Ind.

TO HIS BIRTHPLACE.

Candidate Bryan Left for Salem,
Ill., Today.

VISITED TRUMBULL'S GRAVE.

Any Distinction He Has, He Says, He
Owes to the Dead Man—Spent Sunday
at the Old Trumbull Mansion—His Future Program.

CHICAGO, July 13.—William Jennings Bryan, the nominee of the Democratic party for president, left this afternoon, accompanied by his wife, for Salem, Ill., his birthplace. Mr. Bryan's original intention was to remain in Salem a week and take the rest he so much needed, but he said:
"I find that I will only have a day or two to spend at Salem, although I would like to stay much longer. From Salem I will turn direct to Lincoln, Neb. From there I will go to Omaha and then to New York to receive the notification committee. I do not think the 21st will be the date fixed for my meeting the committee in New York. Probably a week or so later will be the time fixed on."

This morning Mr. Bryan attended the meeting of the notification committee at the Palmer House at 9 o'clock.

The nominee of the Democratic party for president of the United States turned his back Sunday afternoon upon statesmen and eager curiosity seekers and went out to quiet Oakwood cemetery and stood with uncovered head before the grave of Lyman Trumbull, the man who had been his teacher and friend. When Mr. Bryan turned away his eyes were brimming with tears.

"Any distinction I may have I owe

LYMAN TRUMBULL.

Bryan Says He Owes His Greatness to
This Man, Now Dead.

In great part to the man who is buried there," he said, as he turned to the carriage and was driven back to town again.

Sunday was the first opportunity Mr. Bryan had to rest since he started to Chicago over a week ago to attend the convention which was destined to name him as its candidate for president. He spent it under the hospitable roof of the Trumbull homestead, 4016 Lake avenue. The nominee recovered some of his lost strength by sleeping until near noon. After dinner he sat on the porch and looked across the blue waters of the lake. Some of the neighbors called and chatted with Mr. Bryan and Senator Jones, and the vice presidential nominee, Mr. Sewall, drove out and paid a short visit.

George Sternsdorff, who is an old friend of Mr. Bryan in Nebraska, drove over and took the candidate and his wife driving over the southside boulevards.

After they returned, Mr. John Trumbull took Mr. Bryan in his carriage out to Oakwood cemetery, where a visit was paid to the grave of Lyman Trumbull. In the evening Mrs. Bryan and his wife and the members of the Trumbull family sat in the library chatting.

BRYAN'S NEIGHBORS HAPPY.

He Will Be Given a Magnificent Welcome Home.

LINCOLN, Neb., July 13.—A magnificent reception will be tendered Hon. William J. Bryan in Lincoln on his return home. It will be no partisan affair. A feature regarded here as significant is the vast quantity of telegrams being received from Populists over the state asking permission to participate in a Bryan ratification. They appear to regard his endorsement by the Nebraska Populist convention and the St. Louis convention as a foregone conclusion.

The announcement that Illinois had given its vote to Bryan was immediately followed by the long-expected bulletin that a nomination had been made. All the flags and bunting in the various stores were purchased, and never before has the city of Lincoln been so gaily decorated. Cannons were fired at regular intervals from the government square on university grounds, and processions and carriages passed along the streets with placards bearing the huge figures of 16 to 1.

HARRITY REFUSED RE-ELECTION.

A Vigorous Silver Campaign to Be Made In the East.

CHICAGO, July 13.—The national committee wanted to re-elect Harrity national chairman, but he declined, saying he wanted to rest. Senator Jones of Arkansas has been made chairman. Mr. Bryan made the suggestion that the exercises attending the notification of candidates could be held with advantage in Madison Square garden, New York, in about three weeks. This was the place where the exercises were held four years ago, when the committee nominated Mr. Cleveland of his nomination and heard his address of acceptance. This will likely be done.

It was decided to carry the fight for free silver into the east, and Candidate Bryan will likely soon speak in New York.

Headquarters will likely be in Chicago.

Knives In a Convention.

WAYNE, W. Va., July 13.—At the Republican district convention held here a row occurred over instructing delegates to the county convention, in which knives, pistols and clubs were used freely. They at last broke up without being instructed. No one was seriously wounded.

Three Desperados Used The Revolvers
Promiscuously in Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 13.—Three men in a buggy drawn by a grey horse have created a reign of terror on the north city. They drove rapidly through the streets emptying their revolvers in the air, and now and then made things lively by firing at people whom they passed. During their ride they shot three men, one of them fatally. The men are:

Sergeant William Sauer of the East Chicago avenue police station; shot twice in the breast and once in the neck; will die.

Andrew Martin, shot in right heel; not serious.

John Keefe, shot in left instep; not serious.

The men made their escape.

Maceo's Death Doubtful.

HAVANA, July 13.—In official circles here it is not believed that Antonio Maceo the insurgent leader in the province of Pinar del Rio, is dead, as reported by some merchants who arrived here from that province. It is believed that the report of Antonio Maceo's death was confounded with the repeated statements from Santiago de Cuba that his brother, Jose Maceo, died from wounds received in a recent engagement.

Girls Scare Off Robbers.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., July 13.—Two highwaymen held up and attempted to rob Misses Laura Despard and Belle Clemens, society girls, on Julian street, near the Chancellor mansion. The girls resisted, their cries attracted assistance, and the robbers escaped. Later a man named Dawson, who says he is related to Albert Dawson, recently murdered here, was arrested, and confessed that he was one of the robbers.

For the Paris Show.

LONDON, July 13.—A scheme is on foot to erect a gigantic model of the globe, surrounded by staircases, twice the size of the proposed globe for the Paris exhibition. The scale will be one five-hundredth of nature, and the globe will take two years to build. London will be about the size of an English penny.

A Bold Daylight Robbery.

CHICAGO, July 13.—Four men armed with revolvers entered the office of the New York Biscuit company at noon, held up the cashier at the point of revolvers and made away with the cash box, containing $3,000. They then made good their escape. The office is at Morgan and Randolph streets, four blocks from a police station.

Bought McKinley's Picture.

COLUMBUS, July 13.—The commission consisting of Gov. Bushnell, Senator Whittlesey and Representative Boxwell, appointed to purchase a picture of Gov. McKinley, has selected the oil painting submitted by A. C. Fauley, a Columbus artist. It has been hung in the governor's office. The portrait is a splendid likeness. The price was $500.

Convict Assaults a Foreman.

COLUMBUS, July 13.—John Thorn, a Seneca county prisoner, serving two years in the penitentiary for burglary, assaulted Foreman Jim Stoyke of the chair shop, injuring him badly. Thorn was hung in a solitary cell, with his hands above his head. Deputy Dawson has not yet decided what punishment will be given to him.

A DAY OF SERVICES.

How the Christian Endeavorers Spent Sunday.

THE DENOMINATIONAL RALLIES.

Many Meetings Held in Tents and in the Churches Throughout the City—Sunrise Prayer Meetings Held Every Day by Zealous Delegates.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—Although the Sabbath was not one of rest for the large army of Christian Endeavorers who are still in Washington, there were no demonstrations of a secular nature, but the local committee had prepared a program that provided for meetings especially from sunrise until a late hour in the evening. The attendance at the numerous services was very gratifying. Rarely has the capital city been the scene of so many distinguished divines and Christian workers in other fields as on the present occasion, and the people have not been slow to take advantage of their presence in order to hear the gospel as preached by them. About 80 of the pulpits were filled by the visiting clergymen at the 11 o'clock services. The day began, as indeed, have all since the convention formally opened on Thursday, with early morning prayer meetings over the city in the churches presided over by the presidents of the local Christian Endeavor societies in the respective churches. The topic assigned for discussion at these gatherings was prayer and Bible study. "I will make it the rule of my life to pray and read the Bible every day."

These were followed by the Sunday-school sessions at 9:30, and later by the regular church services at 11 o'clock. The missionary spirit was the key note of the services held for an hour during the afternoon. Not less than 25 distinct denominational rallies were held in both the colored and white churches and tents.

In the early evening, many of the visitors attended the local junior and senior endeavor meetings. The day closed with the regular church services, many of the pulpits being filled as in the morning by the visiting clergy.

The largest gatherings were in the mammoth tents on the White lot, where the people met in large audiences.

The Baptists probably had the largest reunion in East Washington, where the Rev. C. A. Barber, of Rochester, N. Y., was the presiding officer. Remarks were made by Rev. H. C. Mable of Boston, Rev. W. F. Thomas of Burma, Supplementary to this, an evangelistic meeting was held in the same tent. Rev. B. Fay Mills of Fort Edwards, N. Y., presided, and E. O. Excell of Chicago was musical director.

In Tent Endeavor, where the Presbyterians held their rally, Rev. Dr. C. L. Work of Cincinnati presided and made an address.

He was followed by Rev. Dr. Wallace of this city, Miss Catherine Jones of New York and Rev. B. Fay Mills of Fort Edwards, N. Y.

Rev. W. E. Barton of Boston presided at the Congregational missionary rally at Tent Williston, Rev. J. W. Fifield of Chicago offered prayer, and the following addressed the gathering:

Rev. Charles C. Creagan of Brooklyn, Miss Margaret W. Rich of Ceylon, Rev. Warren Goff of Tennessee, Rev. A. F. McGregor of Montreal, Rev. Cyrus Clark, missionary to Japan; Dr. Todd, missionary to Cesarea, and Rev. W. G. Boddefoot.

Other rallies were held by the following denominations:

made by Bishop Hoburn of India. A Sabbath observance meeting at the Central hall, over which Rev. L. Cuyler of Brooklyn presided, attracted many people. Here addresses were made by Mrs. Henry T. McEwen, New York city; Rev. Alexander, New York city; Rev. J. B. Crafts, Washington, and Rev. J. B. Davidson, Milwaukee, Wis. The latter took for his subject "The Sabbath God's Bridge Over the Chasm Between Christ and Christless Wage-earners."

SEWALL OF MAINE

Bryan's Running Mate a Wealthy Business Man.

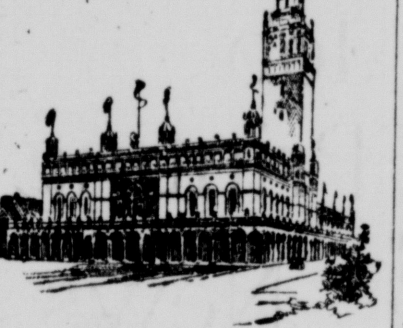

CHICAGO, July 13.—Arthur Sewall of Maine, Democratic candidate for vice president, lives at Bath and is former president of a railroad, president of a bank, as well as owner of a shipyard and is very wealthy.

Sibley of Pennsylvania and McLean of Ohio were nominated, but withdrew. The convention almost stampeded to Bland, but he withdrew.

Boies of Iowa was named, but he also withdrew.

O'Sullivan, Massachusetts, named George Fred Williams of Massachusetts, Marsden, Louisiana, nominated John R. McLean.

Ex-Congressman Tom Johnson, Ohio, named Fithian of Illinois, announcing that, while not a free silver man, he Miller, Oregon, wanted Gov. Pennington, Oregon.

Burke, California, named Sewall, Maine.

Showalter, Missouri, named Sibley, North Carolina put forth Judge Clarke of that state.

Powers, Utah, nominated Daniel, Virginia, but the latter refused to run.

Morris, Illinois, seconded Sibley.

Werve Jones, Ohio, seconded McLean. The first ballot resulted as follows:

Sibley, 163; Sewall, 100; McLean, 111; Williams (Mass.), 76; Boies, 20; Bland, 62; Clark, 50; Lewis, 11; Williams (Ill.), 23; Harty, 29; Fithian, 1; Blackburn, 20; Daniel, 11; Pattison, 2; Teller, 1; White, 1. Absent or not voting, 260.

Second ballot—Sibley, 113; Sewall, 87; McLean, 164; Williams, Massachusetts, 16; Bland, 288; Clark, 22; Harty, 21; Pattison, 1; Williams, Illinois, 13. Not voting or absent, 255.

Third ballot—Bland, 255; McLean, 210; Sibley, 50; Sewall, 97; Williams, Massachusetts, 15; Harty, 19; Clark, 22; Pattison, 1; Daniel, 6; Absent or not voting, 255.

Fourth ballot—McLean, 298; Sewall, 26; Harty, 11; Williams, Massachusetts, 19; Clark, 46; Pattison, 1; Daniel, 54. Absent or not voting, 250.

Fifth ballot—Sewall, 588; McLean, 32; Harty, 11; Williams, Massachusetts, 9; Clark, 23; Pattison, 1; Daniel, 36. Absent or not voting, 251.

M'KINLEY MAY STUMP.

Likely to Follow the Action of Candidate Bryan.

CANTON, O., July 13.—The impression prevails here that Bryan will be put on the stump for a personal canvass. This naturally causes discussion here as to whether the Republican managers will not follow the same course, and have McKinley make a tour.

His capability in that line is already known, and while no one in authority pretends to know positively that such will be the case, it is expected that he will at least make a campaigning tour westward.

Women's Bodies Recovered.

WHEELING, W. Va., July 13.—The bodies of Alice Baxter and Kate Roberts, who were drowned by the collapse of a canoe at Wellsburg, were recovered just above here. The body of James Lloyd, their companion, has not been found. Young Lloyd's father is in a precarious condition from heart disease, produced by the shock.

Five People Killed.

CHICAGO, July 12.—Five people were killed, three fatally injured and a score seriously hurt in a wreck on the Chicago & Northern Pacific road. The wrecked train was the first section of a picnic train.

Conspirators Arrested in Peru.

LIMA, Peru, July 13.—Several participants of ex-president Caeceres and four colonels of the army have been arrested charged with conspiracy. It is asserted that they planned a revolution.

The Weather.

Showers; light to fresh and variable winds.

TWO YEARS FOR SENATOR.

Ex-State Senators Iden and Abbott Sentenced at Columbus.

COLUMBUS, O., July 13.—Judge Pugh Saturday overruled the motion for a new trial in the case of J. B. Abbott of Newark, ex-members of the state senate. They were sentenced to the penitentiary for two years each. In order to give them time to carry their cases to the circuit court, sentence was suspended until September. Senator Abbott was ordered to pay the costs of the trial in the attempt to bribe the jury.

Senator Iden was convicted of offering to John R. Malloy, clerk of the house of representatives, $50 if he would make the records of the roll call appear to have passed the Newark O. N. G. enactment bill in case it failed to receive sufficient votes. When asked if he had anything to say, both declared their innocence of the charges. They were wisely affected at the failure of the court to grant new trials, and received their sentences with evidences of grief.

FRANK HURD'S FUNERAL.

The Dead Man's Remains Interred at Mt. Vernon.

MT. VERNON, O., July 13.—The remains of the late Frank H. Hurd, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Clarke, other relatives and friends, including a number of Toledo gentlemen, who acted as pallbearers, were brought here Saturday evening, via the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, and were taken to the residence of Mrs. Clarke, the old Hurd homestead, on North Main street.

The funeral occurred at St. Vincent de Paul's church, Sunday at 3:30 p. m., and Rev. Lawrence W. Muthane celebrated requiem high mass. The interment was in Mount View. An immense throng of people assembled to show their respect for the deceased.

Will Banquet Bushnell.

ZANESVILLE, O., July 13.—The Republican League clubs of Zanesville, assisted by a number of prominent Republicans, will banquet Governor Bushnell at the Clarendon hotel next Friday evening, July 17. Invitations have been issued to the league throughout the state, and many acceptances and orders for tickets have been received. Battery C, First Light Artillery, O. N. G., will act as escort to the governor and staff upon the arrival of that distinguished body.

Shot His Wife and a Barker.

SPRINGFIELD, O., July 13.—Bartender Louie Lauderman and Mrs. Charles Starke here were probably fatally shot by Charles Starke. The motive was jealousy. Starke has been keeping a boardinghouse and saloon at 100 East Maine street, and recently left the city, supposedly on account of a quarrel with his wife. He returned a few days ago, but in the meantime his wife had gotten Louie Lauderman to attend the bar for her. Starke made his escape.

A Railroad Man Suicides.

LOGAN, O., July 13.—Harry O'Shanley, an employee of the Hocking Valley shops here, has committed suicide while at work by cutting his throat from ear to ear and sticking a scratch awl into his left side five inches. His home is at Dennison, O., where he has a wife. Despondency, superinduced by bodily ailment and domestic trouble, was the cause.

A Pension for Mrs. Huxley.

LONDON, July 13.—A civil pension of £200 has been granted to Prof. Huxley's widow, and a pension of £70 has been granted to the widow of Sir Joseph Barnaby, the late principal of the Guild hall school of music.

Noted German Professor Dead.

BERLIN, July 13.—Prof. Ernest Curtius, the well-known German philologist and archeologist, is dead. He was at one time tutor of Prince Frederick William of Prussia, and was noted for his researches in Greek.

Greeting in the Pool.

The central pool at the aquarium is 30 feet in diameter. In this pool there are among other fish three handsome weakfish, each weighing about a pound and a half. Sometimes the weakfish swim about in company, sometimes two together and one by itself. Sometimes the three move about separately, but it seems as though they knew one another. The other day two of them started around the big pool in opposite directions. Meeting on the other side, they halted side by side in the water for a moment, as two men might halt on meeting in the street, and after this mute greeting they started up their fins and went each its way.—New York Sun.

Becoming Veils.

Veils which are designed to enhance the loveliest complexion and improve a poor one are made of black Russian net spotted with chenille and lined with the thinnest pink tulle. These are gathered ready for use and finished with rosettes of baby ribbon at the back. White veiling with brown chenille spots is another fancy of fashion.

Police Court Colloquy.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Claims committee will meet this evening.

The camps on Beaver Creek were thronged with visitors yesterday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Severs, of Huston's addition—a daughter.

The Cartwright, Sebring and Walker families moved to Spring Grove today.

The Chelsea pottery at New Cumberland resumed work this morning, after a shutdown lasting several weeks.

Reverend Reinartz occupied the pulpit of the Wallrose, Beaver county, church yesterday, morning and evening.

Mr. Gray, telegraph editor of the Pittsburgh Leader, passed through the city on his wheel yesterday, bound for Wheeling.

A large number of bicyclists went to Beaver Falls, Saturday, to see the Pittsburgh-Cleveland racers go through that place.

Many potters, who have been spending the holiday season out of the city, have returned home, and are at work today.

John Gardner and son, employees of the Akron pottery, returned home this morning, after spending a week with relatives here.

The base ball ground at Spring Grove has been leveled and rolled, a new backstop erected, and the season will be opened this evening.

D. A. Mackintosh was taken suddenly ill while at his work, Saturday, and was at once removed to the campground, where he is now resting.

A very pleasant dance was held at Bradshaw hall Saturday evening, and the Alvin club will hold a reception at their rooms this evening.

The Auerwaerter family, near the campground, will celebrate the roofing of their barn by having an old-fashioned country dance tomorrow evening.

The steamer Lucania, bearing the party from this city to England, arrived at Liverpool last Friday night, after a successful voyage across the Atlantic.

Sanitary Policeman King left Saturday night by boat on a 10 days' trip down the river. Before returning he will call at the principal western cities of the state.

A valuable horse owned by John Rinehart, died last night. The animal had been driven too hard, and was given too much water and feed while overheated.

J. J. Purinton is improving rapidly, and it is expected that he will be removed to his home in this city in a month. F. D. Kitchell spent yesterday with him in the hospital.

George H. Owen and wife, B. H. Jessup and wife and T. B. Murphy, left this morning to attend the state encampment of the Patriarches Militant in session this week at Marion.

Harry Dickey, while riding his wheel on Fifth street, Saturday evening, got his foot caught in the rear wheel severely spraining his ankle. He did not fall, but rode the wheel to the pavement.

The river continues to fall slowly, and rivermen fear that navigation will not last much longer. The Ben Hur passed down at noon today, and the Keystone is due down at 9 o'clock this evening.

The Eagle Hardware company entered suit against David Johnson and William Mickey for $28.86, balance claimed due on an account. The case will be heard tomorrow morning by Squire Manley.

The team of a local liquor dealer took flight on lower Broadway this morning, and started to run away. They were stopped however before going a very great distance. No damage was done.

A number of cards have been received by the comrades of the One Hundred and Fourth, Ohio Volunteer Infantry, announcing the 28th annual reunion to be held at Mapiton, O., August 12 and 13.

Charles Dix and Alex McGraw will go to Pittsburgh this evening to secure transportation for the Anglers, who will leave tomorrow morning for an outing of three weeks at Harmon, W. Va. Their camping outfit was shipped today.

The Keystone brought home, yesterday evening, a large party of East Liverpool people who made the trip to Cincinnati. The clerk remarked as he saw them leaving the boat, "We get more passengers here than at any other point on the river."

Outgoing shipments at the freight depot have taken a decided slump lately, and the employees of the shipping platform have comparatively little to do at present. A car load of glassware was sent out to-day, but very little crockery is being shipped.

A ludicrous sight was seen on Sixth street, Saturday night. A drunken man, carrying a live turtle of great size by the tail, walked along the street. The turtle snapped viciously at his tormentor when opportunity afforded. How the man escaped a bite is a mystery.

Frank Knowles, of Avondale street, hired a horse and buggy Saturday, and drove to a camp on Beaver creek to remain over Sunday. During the night the horse was tied to a tree, but it succeeded in getting free, and trotted leisurely back to its stable in the city. Mr. Knowles, upon discovering that the horse was missing, returned at once to the city, and was greatly relieved when he learned that the animal was not lost.

M'KINLEY MAY STUMP.

Likely to Follow the Action of Candidate Bryan.

CANTON, O., July 13.—The impression prevails here that Bryan will be put on the stump for a personal canvass. This naturally causes discussion here as to whether the Republican managers will not follow the same course, and have McKinley make a tour.

His capability in that line is already known, and while no one in authority pretends to know positively that such will be the case, it is expected that he will at least make a campaigning tour westward.

Women's Bodies Recovered.

WHEELING, W. Va., July 13.—The bodies of Alice Baxter and Kate Roberts, who were drowned by the collapse of a canoe at Wellsburg, were recovered just above here. The body of James Lloyd, their companion, has not been found. Young Lloyd's father is in a precarious condition from heart disease, produced by the shock.

Five People Killed.

CHICAGO, July 12.—Five people were killed, three fatally injured and a score seriously hurt in a wreck on the Chicago & Northern Pacific road. The wrecked train was the first section of a picnic train.

Conspirators Arrested in Peru.

LIMA, Peru, July 13.—Several partisans of ex-president Cañales and four colonels of the army have been arrested charged with conspiracy. It is asserted that they planned a revolution.

The Weather.

Showers; light to fresh and variable winds.

TWO YEARS FOR CLARK.

Ex-State Senators Iden and Abbott Sentenced at Columbus.

COLUMBUS, O., July 13.—Judge Pugh Saturday overruled the motion for a new trial in the case of J. B. Abbott of McConnellsville and George Iden of Newark, ex-members of the state senate. They were sentenced to the penitentiary for two years each. In order to give them time to carry their cases to the circuit court, sentence was suspended until September. Senator Abbott was convicted of soliciting bribes in connection with the attempt to pass the pharmacy bill.

Sentences were also pronounced on Senator Iden, who was convicted of offering to John R. Malloy, clerk of the house of representatives, $50 if he would make the records of the roll call appear to have passed the Newark O. N. G. encampment bill in case it failed to receive sufficient votes. When asked if they had anything to say, both declared their innocence of the charges. They were visibly affected at the failure of the court to grant new trials, and received their sentences with evidences of grief.

FRANK HURD'S FUNERAL.

The Dead Man's Remains Interred at Mt. Vernon.

MT. VERNON, O., July 13.—The remains of the late Frank H. Hurd, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Clarke, other relatives and friends, including a number of Toledo gentlemen, who acted as pallbearers, were brought here Saturday evening, via the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, and were taken to the residence of Mrs. Clarke, the old Hurd homestead, on North Main street.

The funeral occurred at St. Vincent de Paul's church, Sunday at 3:30 p. m., and Rev. Lawrence W. Mathane celebrated requiem high mass. The interment was in Mount View. An immense throng of people assembled to show their respect for the deceased.

Will Banquet Bushnell.

ZANESVILLE, O., July 13.—The Republican League clubs of Zanesville, assisted by a number of prominent Republicans, will banquet Governor Bushnell at the Clarendon hotel next Friday evening, July 17. Invitations have been issued to the league's throughout the state, and many acceptances and orders for tickets have been received. Battery C, First Light Artillery, O. N. G., will act as escort to the governor and staff upon the arrival of that distinguished body.

Shot His Wife and a Barkeeper.

SPRINGFIELD, O., July 13.—Bartender Louie Landerman and Mrs. Charles Starke have been probably fatally shot by Charles Starke. The motive was jealousy. Starke has been keeping a boardinghouse and saloon at 100 East Maine street, and recently left the city, supposedly on account of a quarrel with his wife. He returned a few days ago, but in the meantime his wife had gotten Louie Landerman to attend the bar for her. Starke made his escape.

A Railroad Man Suicides.

LOGAN, O., July 13.—Harry O'Shanon, an employee of the Hocking Valley shops here, has committed suicide while at work by cutting his throat from ear to ear and sticking a scratch awl into his left side five inches. His home is at Denniston, O., where he has a wife. Despondency, superinduced by bodily ailment and domestic trouble, was the cause.

A Pension for Mrs. Huxley.

LONDON, July 13.—A civil pension of £200 has been granted to Prof. Huxley's widow, and a pension of £70 has been granted to the widow of Sir Joseph Barnby, the late principal of the Guild hall school of music.

Noted German Professor Dead.

BERLIN, July 13.—Prof. Ernest Curtius, the well-known German philologist and archaeologist, is dead. He was at one time tutor of Prince Frederick William of Prussia, and was noted for his researches in Greek.

Greeting in the Pool.

The central pool at the aquarium is 30 feet in diameter. In this pool there are among other fish three handsome weakfish, each weighing about a pound and a half. Sometimes the weakfish swim about in company, sometimes two together and one by itself. Sometimes the three move about separately, but it seems as though they knew one another. The other day two of them started around the big pool in opposite directions. Meeting on the other side, they halted side by side in the water for a moment, as two men might halt on meeting in the street, and after this mute greeting they started up their fins and went each its way. —New York Sun.

Becoming Veils.

Veils which are designed to enhance the loveliest complexion and improve a poor one are made of black Russian net spotted with chenille and lined with the thinnest pink tulle. These are gathered ready for use and finished with rosettes of baby ribbon at the back. White veiling with brown chenille spots is another fancy of fashion.

Police Court Colloquy.

Judge—Why don't you answer whether or not you are guilty?

Prisoner—I refuse to commit myself.

Judge—I'll save you the trouble—six months. —Philadelphia Record.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Claims committee will meet this evening.

The camps on Beaver Creek were thronged with visitors yesterday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Severs, of Huston's addition—a daughter.

The Cartwright, Sebring and Walker families moved to Spring Grove today.

The Chelsea pottery at New Cumberland resumed work this morning, after a shutdown lasting several weeks.

Reverend Reinartz occupied the pulpit of the Wallrose, Beaver county, church yesterday, morning and evening.

Mr. Gray, telegraph editor of the Pittsburg Leader, passed through the city on his wheel yesterday, bound for Wheeling.

A large number of bicyclists went to Beaver Falls, Saturday, to see the Pittsburg-Cleveland racers go through that place.

Many potters, who have been spending the holiday season out of the city, have returned home, and are at work today.

John Gardner and son, employees of the Akron pottery, returned home this morning, after spending a week with relatives here.

The base ball ground at Spring Grove has been leveled and rolled, a new backstop erected, and the season will be opened this evening.

D. A. Mackintosh was taken suddenly ill while at his work, Saturday, and was at once removed to the campground, where he is now resting.

A very pleasant dance was held at Bradshaw hall Saturday evening, and the Alvin club will hold a reception at their rooms this evening.

The Auerwater family, near the campground, will celebrate the roofing of their barn by having an old-fashioned country dance tomorrow evening.

The steamer Lucania, bearing the party from this city to England, arrived at Liverpool last Friday night, after a successful voyage across the Atlantic.

Sanitary Policeman King left Saturday night by boat on a 10 days' trip down the river. Before returning he will call at the principal western cities of the state.

A valuable horse owned by John Rinehart, died last night. The animal had been driven too hard, and was given too much water and feed while overheated.

J. J. Purinton is improving rapidly, and it is expected that he will be removed to his home in this city in a month. F. D. Kitchel spent yesterday with him in the hospital.

George H. Owen and wife, E. H. Jessup and wife and T. B. Murphy, left this morning to attend the state encampment of the Patriarches Militant in session this week at Marion.

Harry Dickey, while riding his wheel on Fifth street, Saturday evening, got his foot caught in the rear wheel severely spraining his ankle. He did not fall, but rode the wheel to the pavement.

The river continues to fall slowly, and rivermen fear that navigation will not last much longer. The Ben Hur passed down at noon today, and the Keystone is due down at 9 o'clock this evening.

The Eagle Hardware company entered suit against David Johnson and William Mickey for $28.86, balance claimed due on an account. The case will be heard tomorrow morning by Squire Manley.

The team of a local liquor dealer took fright on lower Broadway this morning, and started to run away. They were stopped however before going a very great distance. No damage was done.

A number of cards have been received by the comrades of the One Hundred and Fourth, Ohio Volunteer Infantry, announcing the 28th annual reunion to be held at Mapleton, O., August 12 and 13.

Charles Dix and Alex McGraw will go to Pittsburg this evening to secure transportation for the anglers, who will leave tomorrow morning for an outing of three weeks at Harmon, W. Va. Their camping outfit was shipped today.

The Keystone brought home, yesterday evening, a large party of East Liverpool people who made the trip to Cincinnati. The clerk remarked as he saw them leaving the boat, "We get more passengers here than at any other point on the river."

Outgoing shipments at the freight depot have taken a decided slump lately, and the employees of the shipping platform have comparatively little to do at present. A car load of glassware was sent out to-day, but very little crockery is being shipped.

A ludicrous sight was seen on Sixth street, Saturday night. A drunken man, carrying a live turtle of great size by the tail, walked along the street. The turtle snapped viciously at his tormentor when opportunity afforded. How the man escaped a bite is a mystery.

Frank Knowles, of Avondale street, hired a horse and buggy Saturday, and drove to a camp on Beaver creek to remain over Sunday. During the night the horse was tied to a tree, but it succeeded in getting free, and trotted leisurely back to its stable in the city.

Mr. Knowles, upon discovering that the horse was missing, returned at once to the city, and was greatly relieved when he learned that the animal was not lost.

WITH INTENT TO KILL

That is the Indictment Against
John Kirchner.

ANOTHER STREET RAILWAY SUIT

Hannah Hannahan Wants Her Judgment
Paid, and Sues the Company—Others
Who Have an Interest in the Matter.
Special Grand Jury Report.

LISBON, July 13. [Special.]—The special grand jury made its report on Saturday night having found seven indictments. John Kirchner must answer for assault and battery, and the others are as follows: Frank Blackburn, Wells-ville, horse stealing; Charles Gallagher, East Liverpool, keeping gambling place; Sidney Burroughs, larceny; Patrick O'Rourke, assault and battery; Charles McKee, Lisbon, selling liquor to minors. O'Rourke pleaded guilty, and got five days in jail, and McKee got $25 and costs on each charge. The others plead not guilty, and will be tried as soon as possible.

Mrs. Hannah Hannahan, of East Liverpool, who a few days ago recovered judgment and costs against the East Liverpool and Wellsville street railroad, filed another action this morning against the railroad company, its stockholders and creditors, asking that the court adjust the financial affairs of the company by ordering a sale of the road and distributing the proceeds. Those who are made defendant to the action are: The Savings and Trust company, of Cleveland, A. L. Johnson, Katie Johnson, A. R. Mackall and A. R. Mackall as trustee, S. H. Short, C. E. Short, C. E. Grover, I. W. Grover, Homer S. Knowles, John N. Taylor, Emily Mears, executor of James Mears' estate, Alex Smith, John G. Bright, Daniel Morgan, C. E. Merchand, Henry Elkins, Evan Davis, George Burton, The Harker Pottery company, First National bank, Ella and Maggie McDole, David Boyce and Robert Andrews.

Typhoid Fever and Bananas.

William C. Ussery, M. D., of St. Louis says that the best food for those suffering from typhoid fever is the banana. In this disease, he explains, the lining membrane of the small intestine becomes intensely inflamed and engorged. Eventually it begins sloughing away in spots, leaving well defined ulcers. At these places the intestinal walls become dangerously thin. A solid food, if taken into the stomach, is likely to produce perforation of the intestines and dire results will follow. Therefore solid foods or foods containing a large amount of nutritive substances, as compared with nutritious substances, are dangerous and are to be avoided. The banana, although it may be classed as a solid food, containing as it does 95 per cent nutrition, does not possess sufficient waste to irritate these sore spots. Nearly the whole amount taken into the stomach is absorbed and gives the patient more strength than can be obtained from other food.—New York Tribune.

Drawing Room Weaving.

A new occupation and fashion among English women is that of drawing room weaving upon light house looms. Upon these looms hand woven table linen and towels, with and without borders, are made. Though the world is not suffering for those hand woven products, they are thought by some to have an artistic value that machine woven fabrics have not, and as we copy English fashions sooner or later, it is predicted that ere long American women, too, will perhaps return to a bygone occupation, from which their grandmothers were very thankful to be free.

CONSCRIPTION IN FRANCE.

The French Army Is One of the Greatest of Modern Times.

"Every Frenchman owes service to the state in return for the protection it affords his person, his rights and his property." This principle is the foundation of the military administration of the French, whose army is one of the greatest of modern times, and whose military discipline is said to approach as near to perfection as is considered possible in so great an organization.

Formerly the period of active military service was five years, but recently the chamber passed a bill reducing it to three, at the same time lengthening the periods spent with the various stages of the reserve force. As in Germany, it is possible to get a reduction of this term provided the young man can produce proof of a certain standard of education.

The degree of bachelier, the certificate of etude or the passing of a special examination set for the purpose enables, though it does not entitle, the recruit to get his period of service reduced to one year. This commutation is only granted where there is sufficient ground for believing the men are adequately trained and up to the required standard.

Once out of the active army, the men pass into the reserve for six years, where they undergo a short annual period of training until thoroughly efficient soldiers. The next six years are spent with the reserve, after which they are drafted into the territorial army, or third line of defense, for another six years, frequently rising in rank to the position of lieutenant, but not higher. Thence they are put on the reserve territorial list.

This system gives France a peace army of over 500,000, which in time of war can be augmented to 2,500,000 men, or even more.

Partly as a result of the republican nature of the Frenchman, and the administrative government, there is hardly ever a trace of class feeling in the rank. The man of good blood receives no better and no worse treatment at the hands of his fellows and his superior officers than does the recruited farmhand, and rich and poor share equally and good naturedly the pleasant duties and the dirty work.

Of course there as everywhere a well lined purse is a passport to a certain degree of comfort and exemption from the distasteful, but the unfortunate individual who is foolish enough to give demonstration of too much love for clean fingers and whiteness of skin will find that money will not buy him free of the jobs he tries to steer clear of, and that the orderly will take a delight in putting him on to all the dirty work he can find—and seeing that he does it.—New York Mercury.

NOT A PHILANTHROPIST.

Although He Willingly Gave a New Floor For an Old One.

It is not very often that such a seemingly philanthropic offer is made by one business man to another as that told of by a partner in an old bullion house to a reporter.

"Not long ago," he said, "a dealer in gold and silver heard that one floor of a building which had not been occupied for some time was to be rented, but that the prospective tenant had insisted that a new floor be laid before he take possession, as the old one had become very much worn. The bullion dealer knew that the previous occupant had been a manufacturer of jewelry and had been in business in the place for many years. He promptly visited the owner of the property and told him that he would put in a new floor of the best wood for nothing. The owner made a few inquiries, but the dealer said very little in reply, except that he thought he would manage to scrape a good deal of gold and silver dust from off the floor. His offer was accepted. The wood for the new floor and the labor for laying it cost about $200.

"The old flooring was burned and the ashes put through a course of reduction. The result was that the bullion dealer obtained nearly $500 for the gold and silver which were brought out, or a profit of about 100 per cent on the operation.

"Every manufacturer of jewelry or worker in the precious metals calculates that he will lose about $500 in 'saturating' new quarters of the usual loft size. The gold and silver dust penetrates the pores of the wood and small particles are ground into the floor. After just so much is lost in this way the waste ceases and all dust that falls to the floor or adheres to the wall may be swept up or off and saved. The sweepings in these factories and in bullion offices are always saved and reduced."

CLIMBING UP CHEOPS.

AN AMERICAN DESCRIBES A VISIT TO THE PYRAMIDS.

A Feat That Requires a Good Nerve and Cool Head—Three Natives Assist Each
Climber—Graphic Description of a Mountain Ride on a Camel.

The Troy (N. Y.) Times prints a letter written at Cairo, Egypt, by Rev. Dr. L. M. S. Haynes, pastor of the First Baptist church of that city, to H. D. Sweet, a parishioner, in which he says:

"Our conductor called us to an early breakfast at 6:30. Our party of five were promptly on hand. Our carriage was an ordinary American hack. We soon reached the bridge over the Nile and entered the avenue of acacia trees skirting the elevated pike which the government has built clear to the pyramids, a distance of about eight miles. The road was literally crowded with farmers' 'fellahs,' coming into market. We passed hundreds of camels and donkeys loaded down with every conceivable thing, especially fresh white clover, great quantities of which are sold in the city. Each camel carries about 400 pounds. With all the animals there were men, women and children, most of them walking, but they will ride back. The men and boys seemed to be having a good time; but, as usual, the women and girls looked sad and miserable. The donkeys were looking down to the ground, but the camels looked up in the air, as they always do. They are very high minded. Their backs are also high, as I can testify, for I had my first camel ride today. In about an hour we rode up to the very base of the great pile of stone and alighted from our carriage in the sand, with the sun three hours high and blazing hot. It was about 9 o'clock. We were immediately surrounded by the usual crowd of clamorous Arabs, anxious to help us up the great climb. But our conductor, Mr. Solomon, and our superb dragoman, Abraham, who had been with us up the Nile, cleared them all away, and we selected three men each, fine looking men in white.

"We went right away over a pile of sand along the base and stood upon the first tier of stone. Then I formally looked up for the first time. We had seen the three pyramids, so familiar in picture, for more than an hour, but they did not seem to be so very large, because there is nothing to compare them with. But it is three-fourths of a mile around Cheops, and 480 feet to the top. The stones are about six feet square, and project one beyond the other, just like going up many stairs. The place for your feet is about four feet, a very good standing if you reached the floor or were not going up 480 feet right up in the air nearly three times as high as our church steeple.

"We walked easily along one course of stone on the west side, which were worn smooth with passing feet, and came to the northwest corner, where the ascent is made. Two men took me by the hand, and one pushed behind, and I began going up stairs four feet at a step. After about 200 steps I concluded to stop. We must have been about 80 feet up at that corner. I was not dizzy nor very lame, but I felt very peculiar, and I felt more peculiar every minute afterward until I got back on to solid and capacious footing. But up we went, hop, skip and jump, going all the time and going up on the ragged corner of nothing. The stones were smooth, irregular and sometimes broken, but none less than four feet. Heaven was above you and both sides of you, and everlasting smothering beneath you if you should fall. Just then one of the Arabs tumbled a little and gave me a shock like an electric battery.

"Now we come to the half way place where they have thrown off a few rocks, and where you can brace yourself against the breast stones of Cheops and look off a little. We were 240 feet up in the desert air, standing or leaning on the ragged corner and trying to behave and say it was fun. But it was not. There was too much risk and danger. Some people have to be blindfolded to get them down, and many faint, and not long since an English soldier fell. But on we go a little farther, and, thinking the matter all over, I called a halt and deliberately decided that was enough. The view was something grand, I suppose, and if I could have done the climbing when I was 20 years old I might have seen the grandeur. Going down, as I was not dizzy, was easier. But any step might have been my last, and I did not enjoy it as much as I did my splendid reception, though that embarrassed me somewhat.

"Once at the bottom we mounted camels to go to the sphinx. A very large, white fellow fell to my lot. He was flat on the ground as I mounted. When he began to get up, I thought he was going all to pieces. He rose in sections, with four distinct motions, and as each section assumed the horizontal I was jerked backward and forward. Cut a foot log into four parts, joint them together, get astride and have that log begin to assume the shape of a saw horse, with you on top, and you have the idea. However, I held on, and away we went. I estimated that from my chin to the end of the camel's nose was six feet at least. The motion, once up, was not very disagreeable.

"Would gentlemen like to trot?" inquired the driver. The gentleman said he would. He had come to Egypt to see everything. He might have said there is more to feel than to see. Anyway, we went for about 20 rods, when I called out, 'Oh, oh, oh!' and the creature fell into a walk.

"Soon we came to the great sphinx. It is big, and no mistake—a huge woman's head on a lion's body. It is about as large as our church. In front of it, partly buried in the sand, is a temple of granite and alabaster, whose intricacies were visited."

ANTIQUITY OF THE MEASLES.

People in All Times Have Suffered From This Disease.

Of course every one thinks he knows what measles is and yet very few really know more about the ailment than the fact that it is a contagious disease, characterized by sore eyes, sore nose, sore throat and an eruption of the skin.

The disease is one of great antiquity, dating as far back as A. D. 900. At that time, however, it was confounded with smallpox and scarlet fever. By many observers smallpox and measles were always regarded as one and the same disease, differing only in degree. This misinformation was not dispelled until 1670, when Sydenham, an English physician, declared that they were distinct diseases.

About the origin of measles little is known. At the present day the disease is found all over the civilized world. It is not known in uncivilized countries. It has always been claimed that the disease was due to a specific poison, but the nature of it was not known. Quite recently, however, a European bacteriologist named Czajkowski reported that he had found a micro organism in the blood of a person suffering from measles, which he believed to be the cause of the disease. Measles is unlike some other contagious diseases, in that it is no respecter of persons or places. It affects all sorts and conditions of people. What better illustration of this is needed than the present case in the first household of the land? The disease is one of the most highly contagious ailments known. It is far more contagious than smallpox, but the poison of measles contains much less vitality than that of the latter. The poison of measles exists in the breath, the blood, the tears and in the secretions from the nose and throat.

Although the disease is usually classed as one of childhood, adults sometimes suffer from it. The adult cases are usually the more severe. Infants under 6 months are generally considered exempt from the disease, although there are exceptions to the rule. Measles is generally looked upon as a necessary evil of childhood and one that deserves but little attention. In a simple case that may be all well enough, but there are usually other contingencies, and some of these should be guarded against. In almost every case the eyes become inflamed and call for attention. There is usually a bronchitis, which, if left unattended, may be followed by pneumonia and fatal termination.—San Francisco Chronicle.

WITH INTENT TO KILL

That is the Indictment Against
John Kirchner.

ANOTHER STREET RAILWAY SUIT

Hannah Hannahan Wants Her Judgment
Paid, and Sues the Company—Others
Who Have an Interest in the Matter.
Special Grand Jury Report.

LISBON, July 13. [Special.]—The special grand jury made its report on Saturday night having found seven indictments. John Kirchner must answer for assault and battery, and the others are as follows: Frank Blackburn, Wells-ville, horse stealing; Charles Gallagher, East Liverpool, keeping gambling place; Sidney Burroughs, larceny; Patrick O'Rourke, assault and battery; Charles McKee, Lisbon, selling liquor to minors; O'Rourke pleaded guilty, and got five days in jail, and McKee got $25 and costs on each charge. The others plead not guilty, and will be tried as soon as possible.

Mrs. Hannah Hannahan, of East Liverpool, who a few days ago recovered judgment and costs against the East Liverpool and Wells-ville street railroad, filed another action this morning against the railroad company, its stockholders and creditors, asking that the court adjust the financial affairs of the company by ordering a sale of the road and distributing the proceeds. Those who are made defendant to the action are: The Savings and Trust company, of Cleveland, A. L. Johnson, Katie Johnson, A. R. Mackall and A. R. Mackall as trustee, S. H. Short, C. E. Short, C. E. Grover, I. W. Grover, Homer S. Knowles, John N. Taylor, Emily Mears, executor of James Mears' estate, Alex Smith, John G. Bright, Daniel Morgan, C. E. Merchant, Henry Elkins, Evan Davis, George Burton, The Harker Pottery company, First National bank, Ella and Maggie McDole, David Boyce and Robert Andrews.

Typhoid Fever and Bananas.

William C. Usery, M. D., of St. Louis says that the best food for those suffering from typhoid fever is the banana. In this disease, he explains, the lining membrane of the small intestine becomes intensely inflamed and engorged. Eventually it begins sloughing away in spots, leaving well defined ulcers. At these places the intestinal walls become dangerously thin. A solid food, if taken into the stomach, is likely to produce perforation of the intestines and dire results will follow. Therefore solid foods or foods containing a large amount of innutritious substances, as compared with nutritious substances, are dangerous and are to be avoided. The banana, although it may be classed as a solid food, containing as it does 95 per cent nutrition, does not possess sufficient waste to irritate these sore spots. Nearly the whole amount taken into the stomach is absorbed and gives the patient more strength than can be obtained from other food.—New York Tribune.

Drawing Room Weaving.

A new occupation and fashion among English women is that of drawing room weaving upon light house looms. Upon these looms hand woven table linen and towels, with and without borders, are made. Though the world is not suffering for those hand woven products, they are thought by some to have an artistic value that machine woven fabrics have not, and as we copy English fashions sooner or later, it is predicted that ere long American women, too, will perhaps return to a bygone occupation, from which their grandmothers were very thankful to be free.

CONSCRIPTION IN FRANCE.

The French Army Is One of the Greatest of Modern Times.

"Every Frenchman owes service to the state in return for the protection it affords his person, his rights and his property." This principle is the foundation of the military administration of the French, whose army is one of the greatest of modern times, and whose military discipline is said to approach as near to perfection as is considered possible in so great an organization.

Formerly the period of active military service was five years, but recently the chamber passed a bill reducing it to three, at the same time lengthening the periods spent with the various stages of the reserve force. As in Germany, it is possible to get a reduction of this term provided the young man can produce proof of a certain standard of education.

The degree of bachelier, the certificate of study or the passing of a special examination set for the purpose enables, though it does not entitle, the recruit to get his period of service reduced to one year. This commutation is only granted where there is sufficient ground for believing the men are adequately trained and up to the required standard.

Once out of the active army, the men pass into the reserve for six years, where they undergo a short annual period of training until thoroughly efficient soldiers. The next six years are spent with the reserve, after which they are drafted into the territorial army, or third line of defense, for another six years, frequently rising in rank to the position of lieutenant, but not higher. Thence they are put on the reserve territorial list.

This system gives France a peace army of over 500,000, which in time of war can be augmented to 2,500,000 men, or even more.

Partly as a result of the republican nature of the Frenchman, and the administrative government, there is hardly ever a trace of class feeling in the rank. Infants under 6 months are generally considered exempt from the disease, although there are exceptions to the rule. Measles is generally looked upon as a necessary evil of childhood and one that deserves but little attention. In a simple case that may be all well enough, but there are usually other contingencies, and some of these should be guarded against. In almost every case the eyes become inflamed and call for attention. There is usually a bronchitis, which, if left uncared for, may be followed by pneumonia and fatal termination.—San Francisco Chronicle.

A GOOD INVESTMENT.

I own an acre of rich ground, desirably located, alongside the street car line. On this land is a nice 6-room house, with water upstairs and down; house in the best of repair. I want an experienced greenhouse man to locate here. Will erect three greenhouses and give said expert a splendid chance in business. For full information, terms etc., apply at
